ADVERTISEMENT.

WHEREVER more than one of any surname occurs, as in Brown, Smith, Williams, &c. they are placed in the following Manner: First, such as are in Partnership, and then the others according to the Alphabetical Order of their Christian Names. The Courts Alleys, Streets, &c. of little Note are generally described by their situation near some well-known Street or Place.

As this Pamphlet already contains above Nine Thousand Names, and is more in quantity than any other of the same price, printed in Great Britain, the Publisher hopes that will be admitted as a sufficient apology for not following such advice for the improvement of the work as would encrease its bulk; as well as a satisfactory reason why some Trades and Professions are not displayed so amply as desired.

N. B. Several Persons having required money under pretence of procuring the insertion of Names in this Directory, W. Lowndes thinks it necessary to inform the Public, that the people employed by him were always instructed to receive Additions and Corrections, gratis.

✍ Alterations sent in writing before Michaelmas, to No. 76, Fleet-Street, will be duly attended to.

Note. The 5 per Cents. are not redeemable till after 25 millions of the 3 or 4 per Cents. shall have been paid off. The Short Annuities will expire in 1808, and the Long in 1860: India Stock does not make any Part of the National Debt; nor does the State pay so much for the Bank Stock as above stated, as 4 per Cent. of the Dividend arises from Profits of the Trade; and also does $\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. of the S. S. Stocks.

MARSHALSEA and PALACE COURT.

THESE Courts, formerly separate but now united, and whose jurisdiction does not extend into the City of London, nor beyond twelve miles from Whitehall, are here noticed as useful in affording an easy and expeditious jurisdiction for the recovery of debts under ten pounds.

The Court is held weekly, in King-street, Southwark, and sits every Friday throughout the year; and therein actions are generally brought in the following cases:

First, Where the debt or damages to be recovered are not thought considerable enough to warrant the party in incurring the expence of bringing them in the superior courts.

Secondly, Where the plaintiff wishes to avoid delay, particularly during the vacations of the superior courts: For here the continuances are from week to week, without any vacations, and judgment is generally had in three or four weeks.

Thirdly, In actions of trespass or assault, where the plaintiff wishes to avoid the risk of paying costs, as in this Court he is entitled to his costs, upon obtaining a verdict, even for the smallest sum.

Fourthly, Where it is apprehended that several other writs may have been issued against a defendant, which altogether he may not be able to pay or bail; as a defendant arrested by process from this court, may be discharged on paying, or bailing the debt for which he is arrested, without being subject to other detainers.

In ordinary cases the taxed costs allowed to the parties in this court are the full costs incurred, and on verdict for the plaintiff seldom exceed five or six pounds.

The Juries in this Court are selected from the four adjoining counties, viz. Middlesex, Essex, Surry, and Kent, and are changed every fortnight.

The Attorneys and Counsel hold their places for life, and practice in the Courts of Westminster, in which it is necessary they should be first admitted.

ATTORNIES of this Court, all in CLIFFORD'S INN.
